Missy,
It was fun watching you duel over Zane at the Freshman games. It was also fun teasing you about a sweet young girl so Keep on dancing.

I love

Well Hello Melissa, It's been real. To bad we were not in any class to geather
(this year. opps sorry

I for got Biology for about 4 weeks. That's was fun I got a "F".
We will have to go
and party this summer
Phone: 837-5495. That's
If you want to call
and do something.
You are a real nice person and I enjoyed your friendship.

Missy,
I'm sorry we've had our fights but I think we are becoming better friends. Keep in touch over the summer.
Love, Zane Stoddard

Hi Missy
You want 2 see I will give you 3 scuds so I hope the right guy comes in you life you need it. @ Hop you have a great summer and will you keep in touch w/ me. maybe we can go to the Great America on me. I will drive
And we could have a blast so you better keep in touch.

GO FOR THE GOLD

Missy

Hey bud, I bet you can't wait for us little Freshmen to come to S-R-I mean just some more pain in the butts to you upper class men. Maybe some time in the halls you'll say "Hi" to me!! ~~Don't~~ Don't worry
if you do I'll act more; mature,

Fuba

Thank
for letting me
sign.
Love always →

Crazy Cari
Campbell
normal and older so no one would expect you saying hi to a FRESH. That won't be for a long time, think we have a whole summer to PARTY by the time we're back to school maybe you could pass the drivers training the 6th or 7th time and well cruiz around. If you see TRACI PAEHEN say "hi" for me or show her this, it's she she's cool thank for letting me sign.
see this ~~hi~~ "YOU'RE AN AWESOME BASKETBALL PLAYER Traci" Love ya Cari Campbell

Missy,
 Hi honey!
 There's so much to say. I don't know where to begin.
 I haven't been close but friends now it will last forever.
 Biology was just a long talk. You're good tell you! We had so many good times (blind) and over again. I want to cheer me up for that. We've done lots many, of crazy things together and I hope only got 2 many more years left. Miss, we've only got many of them, y'hear? God, I gotta make the very handle a month away from you guys, Missy I hope everything works out in all parts of your life because you definitely deserve it

Missy,
 Your really sweet,
 The thing with Zane was hard and I never really talked to you cool
 a lot but you were cool anyway. Have an awesome summer. Luv
 Craig

(Craig Raggio)

Missy,
 Dope you finally get Zane's attention
 so you can give him that dirty look. I know I'll see you alot during the summer. It's going to be a blast. Come but Primas, maybe I can get you a free pizza.
 Love
 Jill

1984 HOMECOMING COURT

The Homecoming court of 1984 was unveiled by two typical Dublin High School students as they whirled through time in their time machine. Back home on the range, Freshman Princess Lara Goldt and Freshman Escort Scooter Gault were introduced. At the next stop, somewhere in the distant future, Sophomore Princess Lisa Althaus, and Sophomore Escort Barry Tonge were presented. Then in a cave equipped with real cavemen, Junior Princess Kelly Mack and Junior Escort Dave Betts were discovered. Finally, in the age of the Romans, Senior Princess Valerie Stamates and Linnea Tveitmoe, and their escorts Dan Hoskins and Bill Rumble were revealed. The big moment arrived when Queen Carrie McDonald and King Joe Pangelinan were crowned to preside over the 1984 Homecoming court.

2. Senior Princess Valerie Stamates and Senior Escort Dan Hoskins.
3. Senior Princess Linnea Tveitmoe and Senior Escort Bill Rumble.
4. Junior Princess Kelly Mack and Junior Escort Dave Betts.
5. The entire 1983-84 Homecoming court.
6. Sophomore Princess Lisa Althaus and Sophomore Escort Barry Tonge.
7. Freshman Princess Lara Goldt and Freshman Escort Scooter Gault.
8. Queen Carrie McDonald and King Joe Pangelinan take their royal ride.

Homecoming Week spins through time

The theme to this year's Homecoming was "Somewhere In Time." The classes were each assigned a different period of time to carry out the theme for this week. The seniors dressed in togas portraying the Ancient Romans while the juniors went back to the Prehistoric period. The sophomores advanced to the Future, and last but not least, the freshmen represented the Frontier era.

The classes competed in games during this Homecoming week. On Monday the seniors proved who had the power by out-tugging the sophomores in the tug-of-war. The juniors overpowered the freshmen, but when the final tug-of-war game was played the freshmen won over the sophomores, and the seniors over the juniors. On Tuesday a balloon toss captured all of the attention in the quad when the seniors pulled through again. Bill Rumble and John Mundeluis failed to break the water balloon as they tossed it back and forth. Wednesday a volleyball net was set up for everyone in play. As Thursday rolled around, the laughs were sounding as the teachers nervously waited to be dunked in the dunking machine.

Spirit Week ended this year with the traditional Homecoming Rally. Through screams and class yells, and shouting, an enormous amount of enthusiasm was displayed. The sections were colorfully decorated with green and gold painted signs, balloons, and streamers strung from the ceiling.

At the rally the skit began when two geeks from Dublin, Mike Dahla and Kevin Collier tried to take a bus to San Ramon, but accidentally went into a time machine. They first landed in the Frontier period to meet cowboy, Mike Spackman, announcing Freshman Princess Lara Goldt and Escort Scooter Gault. Then the machine spun the geeks into the Future to meet Vice Principal, Bob Scott, portrayed by Mike Meng, who introduced Sophomore Princess Lisa Althaus and Escort Barry Tonge. The geeks next stop was the Prehistoric age to greet cavemen Kristen Oliver and Mike Webb, who called down Junior Princess Kelly Mack and Escort Dave Betts. Finally the geeks twirled to Ancient Rome meeting Dyana King, Billy Moe and Steve Schnitker who revealed the Senior Princesses Linnea Tveitmoe and Valerie Stamates, and Escorts Bill Rumble and Dan Hoskins. Soon the big time came when the Queen Carrie McDonald and King, Joe Pangelinan were announced.

1. Homecoming run through sign for the Wolves.
2. Mike Meng, Mike Dahla and Kevin Collier announce sophomore escort and princess.
3. Two sophomores show their spirit for the Future period during Homecoming week.
4. The Prehistoric float, which gave the junior class first place.
5. Senior Bill Rumble breaks through the crowd as he is declared a Senior class escort.
6. Guys from all classes line up for the water balloon toss at lunch during Homecoming week.
7. Pom Pon girls perform their routine at the rally.
8. Kelley Poague congratulates Carrie McDonald after being announced Queen.
9. Scooter Gault fights his way down to the floor as he is named Freshman class escort.
10. John Miller and Mario Travalini spike the ball as Tom Janis tries to block it.
11. Kelly Mack gets applauded as she moves through the Junior class.

Quake Rocks Homecoming Dance

A week of crazyness ended with the annual Homecoming Dance. Even though the music was blaring and the lights were flashing, some couples were hesitant to dance until others started. But the dance floor soon filled with enthusiastic people rocking to the music from The Quake.

Rallies were looked forward to by most of the student body but a lack of involvement proved to make some rallies less appealing. The time and preparation put in by Rally Commisioners, Dyana King and Kathy Sullivan, made each rally a success. Favorite rallies were the Rock of Ages and of course Homecoming. At the Monte Vista rally San Ramon was visited by some M.V. Cheerleaders, (Mr. Henderson, Mr. Scott, and Mr. Church). Hans Delannoy made his appearance at most rallies, getting the students to show their pride in San Ramon. Good Job to all those involved in the rallies!

7. Hans deLannoy gets the rally intense at our Academic Institution.
8. Strike up the band for the school song.
9. Hey Batman, where's Robin?

Rec. Dances

Rec Dances at San Ramon High were a big success this year due to the attitude towards the new dance craze. There were large turnouts, especially at those following football and basketball games. Everyone enjoyed themselves while dancing to the variety of music put on by Jay Rosenberg. The dances were more appealing to all students this year than in the past. All dances brought in good profits for those sponsoring them. It is nice to see that dancing is becoming a more popular past time. Keep Dancin!

1. Everyone enjoyed dressing up for the Homecoming Dance! 2. Where am I, wonders Laurel Wilbur. 3. Todd Olsen and Laura Webb have that passionate look. 4. A typical San Ramon Rec Dance.

The talented pom squad made up of only two seniors: Karen Klink and Kim Youngman and six juniors: Heather Gomes, Jill Howard, Kim Leininger, Lori Newberry, Jennifer Swany and head Kim Serany proved to be the best yet.

The squad received thirty four superior ribbons, a spirit stick and a superior trophy at USA summer camp in Santa Cruz. They held a raffle for a moped in the fall, cheered at a 49ers' football game in November, cheered at the annual Walnut Festival in Walnut Creek where they were awarded with a second prize award and displayed overall excellence in school activities.

1. Pom girls test the floor for splinters at the Homecoming Rally.
2. The girls boogie to the beat at a rally.
3. Jill Howard looks to see who just scored a touchdown.
4. Lori Newberry displays the ultimate in pom apparel.

The Varsity Cheerleading squad had a memorable year. The Varsity six came home with "summer" from the QSA cheerleading camp held in Santa Cruz. For fundraisers they had a booth at the Danville Fourth of July celebration, sold candy, and hosted a rec. dance. They also put great effort into supporting football and basketball and encouraged all sports throughout the year. The competition sports and activities were just a small part of the fun that the Varsity Cheerleading squad shared. The squad members were: Linnea Tytman, Ellen Hughes, Kelley Fugate, Brenda Hauss, Jeanne Thompson, and Kim Lane.

Great Year! J.V. Cheer Exceeds Expectations

J.V. cheerleaders spent a great deal of time and hard work in order to make this an exceptional year for San Ramon. The squad brought home four superior ribbons, the spirit stick, and a superior trophy from camp USA, where squads from all over compete against each other. Lisa Althaus, Janice Anthony, Kelly Case, Marcie Carson, Carolyn MacCullough, and Holly Vasquez kept up the hard work all year with many fundraisers. Marcie said their goals were to promote school spirit and to have the best year ever. By showing their spirit at all the rallies and games, the J.V. cheerleaders definitely reached their goals.

Frosh Cheer Keep Spirits High

The Freshmen cheerleaders kept their class' spirit alive throughout the year by giving their all at the rallies and games. During the summer, the squad competed against other squads at camp USA to win three excellent ribbons and a superior ribbon won in "around the field review." At the fall banquet during Homecoming week, the cheerleaders served great desserts and presented joke awards. Squad members were Amy Adair, Michele DiPasquale, Brooke Eisan, Heather Hoelsken, Kim Pickett, and Eryn Ritter.

Drill Team Spins to Success!

Under the direction of Cheryl Yee, the 1983-84 Drill Team was led by Allison Muncy. During the summer, tall flags, short flags, and the streamers went to The U.S.A. Drill Team Camp in Santa Cruz. They learned a camp routine as well as many different types of new routines. On November 25, the Drill Team participated in the annual Danville Tree Lighting Ceremonies. They also went on tour in Los Angeles from December 1 through the 4. While on tour they performed at Disneyland and toured NBC Studios. This trip was financed in part by their candy sale. The Drill Team has a great deal of pride and spirit. They have really helped to make this a great school year and would like to thank the administration, staff, and the student body for their support. 1. Sandy Weber waiting for her cue. 2. Jamming Those Notes

Under the direction of Cheryl Yee, the 1983-84 Marching Band was directed by Drum Major Marc Brown and assisted by Dave Gibson.

Band Camp was held during August from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m., involving drill downs, field drills, and music rehearsals. To begin and end camp, overnights were held in the small gym.

On November 25, the band participated in the annual Danville Tree Lighting Ceremonies. They also went on tour in Los Angeles from December 1 through December 4. While on tour they performed at Disneyland and toured NBC Studios, financed in part by their candy sale.

The band has a great deal of pride and spirit. They have really helped to make this a great school year, and would like to thank the administration, staff, and student body for their support.

Choir Sings It All

There were two classes of Chorus this year; Concert Choir that met second hour, and Chamber Choir that met fourth hour. Artfully directed by Mr. Koliha, this year's choir sang varied styles of music, from Pops to Chamber. The fall Pops Concert was performed two nights, November 21st and 22nd, because the concert has been so popular in the past. Soloists chosen by classmates were the highlight of the evening. A Winter Concert was performed jointly with the Band on December 15th. During the year the Chorus held different fundraisers to help fund a trip to Hawaii over Easter Vacation for a music festival in which they had been invited to take part. Chorus continues to be a popular elective at San Ramon.

1. Tracy Palmer and Lynn Kauffmann listen to the director.
2. The whole chorus sings at the Pops Concert November 18th.
3. The Barber Shop Quartet was made up of Mike Spackman, Mike Bollinger, Joe Pangelinan, and Craig Eichler.
4. Nicole Selinger sings a solo at the Pops Concert.
5. Mr. Koliha, director of the chorus.
6. The chamber choir performs in new outfits.
7. Kim Lane and Joey Pangelinan sing "You and I" at the Pops Concert.

WOLFPRINT FULL OF GIFTED WRITERS

The incredible writing team consists of Erika Hopkins, Kent Pellegrini, James Wilson, Maryanne Franceschi, Stephanie Varco, Paul Tringali, Carolyn Black, and Jim Duffin.

The San Ramon newspaper crew led by Mr. Rutherford saw an extremely successful year! Editor-in-chief Linnea Tvietmoe with the help of news editor Catye Card, Sports co-editors Steve Morris and Kent Pellegrini, and ads manager Mike Latham proved to make the Wolf Print the best it has been, presenting an issue every other week. The talents of feature writers Stephanie Varco (Wolfpause), Erika Hopkins, Clarie Britz, Paul Tringali, Carolyn Black, Jim Duffin, James Wilson, Karen Kefer and Carol Pompei also contributed to the newspaper's high quality. Specially honored "Staffer of the Year" Linnea Tvietmoe worked long tedious hours to help make the Wolf Print an entertaining source of reading at San Ramon.

El Lobo '84 had it's ups and downs, yet through all the confusion turned in one of the best books that San Ramon has seen! Editor Kim Lucero and advisor Kris Donovan held the class together meeting those deadlines that seemed to creep up so unexpectedly. With a specially chosen staff of 24 students the yearbook class took in a great amount of money in ads, and spent it for many expensive special effects to make the '84 annual an original and memorable book for all.

"NIGHT OF JANUARY 16th"

The fall play, The Night of January 16th, was a huge success. Skillful actors and a talented director, Patricia Mortenson, put on a fine production. The murder-mystery story line provided intense drama as well as comic relief. The three day run was well attended; each night almost sold out. The drama department at San Ramon continues to be the best in the area.

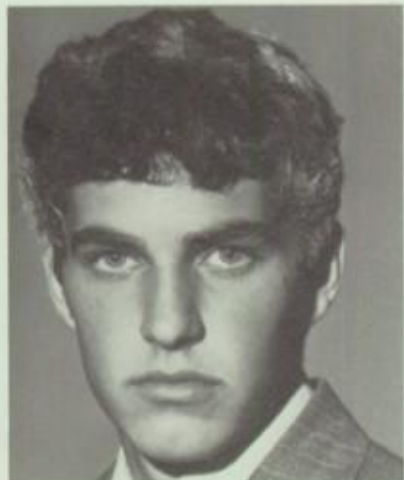

1. Judge Heath (Kevin Collier) listens to D. A. Flint (Mike Dahla) question the defendant, Karen Andre, played by Laura Proctor.
 2. The part of Judge Heath was played by Kevin Collier.
 3. The part of Defense Attorney Stevens was played by Lynn Stanton.
 4. Senior Mike Dahla played the lead role of District Attorney Flint.

"See How They Run"

For this year's Spring play 50 students auditioned for a cast which included three females and six males. The story takes place in England in the 1950's in a Vicarage house, where a young American actress is married to a straight-laced English vicar. The old spinster of the village is in love with the vicar and creates havoc for the American actress. The comedy in this spring production arises from all of the mistaken identities.

Mrs. Mortenson directed the comedy with the help of Yvonne Angel as the student director and Mike Webb as the stage manager.

"A YEAR OF NEW EXPERIENCES"

"San Francisco impressed me a lot because it has always been my big dream to go to San Francisco and the first day I saw it I fell in love with it!" Maria Steiner, a student from Switzerland, claims she likes America very much and says that it's a great place. She has noticed many differences between the U.S. and Switzerland, one of which Maria commented, "People value distances differently. What for you is a short drive is for us a big journey!" Driving is also a bigger deal in Switzerland since to get a driver's license a person must be 18 and it costs almost $800 to get a license. Since Maria had been in the U.S. she's made many friends through AFS and has been involved in jazzercise classes and guitar lessons. When Maria returns to her home country she would like to attend a university there and hopefully travel a lot. Maria expressed her feelings for America when she concluded by saying, "I'm glad I had the opportunity to stay here for a whole year and live with another family. I'm sure I'll visit California (especially S.F. and my family!) again sometime in the future."

Patricia Hahl, a student from Germany, says she's had a great experience by living away from her own family and learning to know about our country and our people. Patricia claims, "America has improved my English a lot. I'm even starting to think in English and unfortunately I'm beginning to forget some of my German vocabulary!" The school systems in Germany are very different as Patricia explained, "The students in school can not choose their own classes; the government tells you what classes you have to take. We have twelve different classes and the schedules are different everyday, but it is always the same every week." Patricia says one difference between German students and San Ramon students is, "German students ride their bikes much more often than the students here and the schools in Germany don't have parking places for cars, but rather for bikes." But Patricia thinks S.R. students are very nice when she commented, "S.R. students are very friendly and smile a lot. They are often interested and friendly to me because I am foreign and I think that is nice." Patricia has been involved in AFS meetings and their programs as well as tennis lessons since she arrived here. When she returns to Germany Patricia hopes to pass the very difficult test which will get her into a university and then maybe become a stewardess for a couple of years.

"The U.S. has blond and brown-haired people. All the people in my country have black hair." A student from Indonesia, Ami Dipongero says there are many differences between the U.S. and Indonesia. Another interesting difference between the two countries as Ami explained, "My country has a lot of difference in each area, like cultures and languages and they started a long time ago." Ami also commented on some differences between the teenagers by saying, "Girls in my country look very natural and we wear dresses everyday and we don't wear strange things like big earrings and hats to school. Girls wear makeup very much here and look older than they really are. The kids here are also free to say what they want in class to the teacher." Ami has been involved in tap dancing lessons and is a member of the choir in the Presbyterian Church in Danville. Two experiences Ami said were really interesting here were, "I can ski, because we don't have snow in my country and I know a little bit about cooking American food. American people are hard-working, easy going and fun-loving. Americans say everything they want exactly and say 'Good' although it's not good. You always say 'Hello,' 'Excuse me,' and 'Sorry' to everybody. I really like liberal life here," Ami concluded.

Since Guillermo Rocco has arrived in the United States from Argentina he has been busy enjoying the many opportunities Northern California has to offer. He has been skiing in Tahoe for a week and has taken numerous trips to San Francisco and Berkeley. One trip that interested him a lot was a backpacking trip that he took with his family in Marble Mountains National Park which he described, "We had a week of hiking and fishing. It was for me incredible such wildness and beauty of the woods." Guillermo mentioned one big difference between Argentina and America was the population which he said, "Since down there we are 28 million people, I was impressed after being in New York, Miami and San Francisco! Such quantity of people!!" The schools are also run very differently than American schools as Guillermo explained, "Each school has its own programs for the whole five years of high school. We can't choose our own classes, also we can't drop any; we have to pass the class with at least a 70% of the total school year grade." He also stated that American teenagers are more easy going but he still thinks American high school girls are too noisy! When Guillermo returns to Argentina he plans to finish secondary school and attend Geophysics Engineering University in his own city, but also must help his mom with their 100 acre farm. Guillermo concluded by stating, "I certainly thought the American lifestyle was going to be much more liberal than I found here. But I really like the simple and easy way of thinking of the Americans and it has helped me to see better some things that seemed difficult to work with before."

AFS HELPS EXCHANGE STUDENTS FEEL AT HOME

Led by President Heidi Snider, Vice President Mickey Stevens and Secretary/Treasurer Sandi Weber, AFS proved to have a very successful year. The club, consisting of over twenty members, put a special emphasis on making the four foreign exchange students feel at home at S.R. The exchange students were involved in various activities with the students which the club hoped would help them feel welcome at our school as well as our country.

The club members have held pot luck dinners every other Monday night for the four students so they would get the chance to meet the other host families. Each week, as well, one or two S.R. students would take one of the foreign students out to lunch or dinner. The exchange students have also joined other families on outings, such as trips to San Francisco and Tahoe. The four students have travelled to other junior high schools to promote AFS and to encourage others to participate in exchange programs in the future.

One highlight of the year was the huge Christmas party the Snider's held for all the AFS chapters from other schools such as Acalanes, Miramonte and Monte Vista. The club also visited the Vatican Exhibit in February and enjoyed meals at foreign restaurants. The club held a successful fundraiser during Halloween in which the members trick-or-treated for donations instead of for candy.

Guillermo Rocco summed up his feelings for AFS when he said, "AFS has helped the exchange students to get a good adjustment to the school and community by doing orientation meetings before and during the year experience," and Maria added, "... it gave me a lot of entertainment and I like AFS a lot!" From the reactions of the exchange students it seems that AFS reached their goal of making the students feel welcomed and should be happy with the productive and successful year they had.

STUDENT COUNCIL THRIVES WITHOUT LEADERSHIP CLASS

Although Student Council was without a formal class this year, students found a way to get things done. With a new Constitution to deal with, the students had to adjust to new rules at first. All classes enjoyed many profits from several fundraisers. The let-down of the year was when Mike Dahla resigned from the office of President of the Student Body. Even so, Student Government was again a success this year.

SENIORS

President Fred Toney, Vice-President Crissy Bozek, Secretary Chris Scott, and Treasurer Marisa Ramans made up the Senior Class hierarchy for the 1983-84 school year. Mike Dahla headed the school as student body president, and Linda Harvey assisted him as vice-president. Overall, they did a great job in planning out our final year.

Carrie McDonald and Joe Pangelinan were crowned Homecoming King and Queen in October. Linnea Tveitmoe and Valerie Stamates reigned as Senior Princesses with Bill Rumble and Dan Hoskins elected to be their escorts.

In literary action, Paul Rosicker and Kathy Sullivan kept the student body informed with their weekly "Teen Times" column in the Valley Pioneer, while Kim Lucero worked steadily throughout the year to complete the 1983-84 annual.

The Class of '84 struggled through the SAT's and achievement tests, enjoyed the Senior Ball at the Sheraton Palace in San Francisco, mingled at the annual Senior Class Picnic at Shadow Cliffs, breathed a sigh of relief at Graduation, and said good-bye's at Grad Night, with a Futuristic theme.

The Senior Class sponsored the annual Talent Show in March, a Christmas tree sale, the Winter Ball, and the Homecoming Dance. Unfortunately, class participation was not as high as was to be hoped. This lack of response — the "Who cares?" attitudes from the seniors — seemed to plague the Class of '84 for its tenure at San Ramon, leaving the few enthusiastic and spirited individuals to carry on with the Senior Class traditions. Overall though, classmates would agree that our Senior year was the best, and we wouldn't trade it for the world.

Varsity showed a great deal of promise. They started out playing one of the toughest teams in high school football De La Salle and ended up tying them 7-7.

Next up was number one ranked Ygnacio Valley High. It was a hard fought game until Ygnacio scored late in the game putting an S.R. victory out of reach. Playing their last pre-season game with El Cerrito, San Ramon lost by a field goal. Despite the futile attempts at the endzone by the offense the Gauchos held the Wolves to a 10-7 loss.

San Ramon opened the season with their first victory over Granada 17-0. The whole offense played well with some great blocking by Andy Lane, Jeff Cudworth, Jim Paige, and Pete Spinetta.

1. 1983 Varsity Football team — front row: Jeff Corson, John Thomann, Brett Petsuch, Barry Watkins, Ron Moran, Chad Petsuch, Dave Trifiletti. second row: John Dallas, Andy Lane, Greg Brown, Jim Paige, Wes Hines, Bob Broxham, Ken Garcia, Ron Summers. third row: Will Gray, Brian Evans, Mike Nelson, Phil Cunningham, Frank Cassara, Rob Hurst, Dave Albertson. fourth row: Pete Spinetta, Bill Rumble, Andrew Marich, Tom Janis, Eric Severud, Pat Boring, top row: Lou Goff, Jeff Cudworth, John Mundelius, Jeff Oclon, Bill Anderson, John Griffen, Dave Barton.

2. Chad Petsuch fights for first down yardage.

3. Dave Albertson blocks the extra point.

4. Mike Nelson awaits snap from center Andy Lane.

5. Dave Barton and Pat Boring fill the hole.

6. Will Gray, John Thomann, and Andrew Marich prepare for the tackle

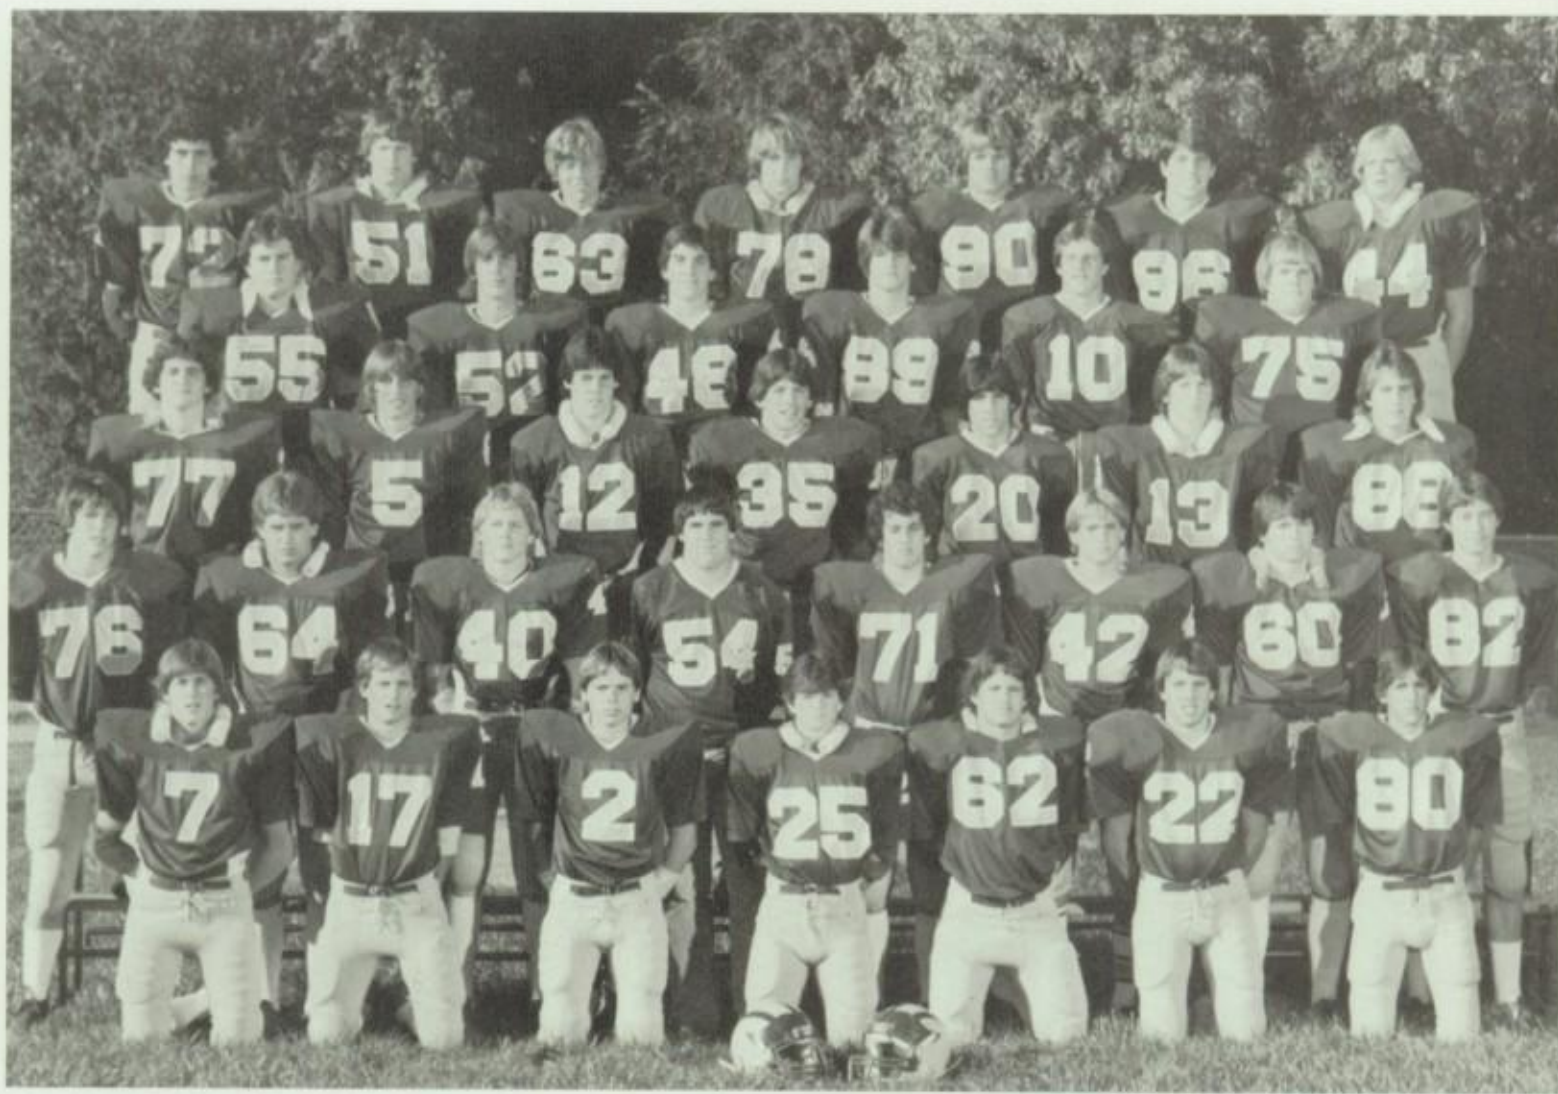

7. Jeff Cudworth sticks a Dublin Gael.

8. Mike Nelson hands off to Phil Cunningham.

San Ramon traveled to Amador where they lost by allowing the Amador Dons to score a late fourth quarter touchdown. The bright spot of the day was passing lead by quarterback Eric Severud and receivers Frank Cassara, Tom Janis and Andrew Marich.

The Wolves playing before their home fans, destroyed the California Grizzlies, 33-0. San Ramon's rushing, led by Chad Petsuch, for 238 yards and four touchdowns, seemed to be unstoppable. After that game the Wolf defense went to No. 1 with its second shut out.

During the Homecoming game the San Ramon Wolves showed their pride by defeating the Dublin Gaels 14-6. For the BIG game the Wolf team traveled to a mud-swamped Monte Vista field. Playing their cross town rivals the Wolves dropped a tough game 21-0.

The final awards were given to: Andy Lane, MVP; Jeff Cudworth, Best Lineman; Andrew Marich, Best Back; Phil Cunningham, Junior Award.

1. Dave Barton sacks the quarterback
2. San Ramon offense ready to execute.
3. John Griffin closes the gap.
4. Mike Nelson around the outside on a quarterback sneak.
5. Lou Goff and Dave Albertson read the play.
6. Bill Anderson receives the short pass.
7. Frank Cassara comes down with the completion.

The 1983 San Ramon Wolves JV team started off on the wrong foot by losing their pre-season opener to De la Sale 21-0. But the team quickly learned how to win and bounced back by winning their next two pre-season games with El Cerrito and Ygnacio Valley. The JV's went unbeaten in their first five games by trampling Granada, Amador, Livermore, and Dublin and tied the Cal Grizzlies 0-0 in a defensive battle. In the next game the JV's were surprisingly turned back by the Foothill Falcons 7-3, which destroyed championship hopes. The final game against undefeated cross-town rival Monte Vista proved to be exciting as always. The Mustang's scored early in the second quarter by blocking a punt and gaining possession on SR's 12 yard line. But the Wolf defense held strong and only let MV come away with a field goal, making it 3-0 at halftime.

On the second play of the third quarter the Wolves went 26 yards to take the lead and ruin MV's hopes for a perfect season.

The JV's ended with a 7-2-1 record giving them second place in league play.

Dean Gallagher received the outstanding offensive player award, while Colin Smith was awarded the defensive player of the year. Center Dave Kerr was chosen as the Most Improved player and Ron Lang was voted the Coaches award.

The freshmen ended their seven game season with the best record in S.R. Frosh history.

The Wolf cubs finished 6-1, becoming EBAL champs, guided by Coach Triffaletti, Coach Broders, and Coach Schuman.

The Lobo's only loss came in their second game of the season against Amador. The Frosh also had three shutouts, their first coming in the first game of the season against Granada, 6-0. The next came after their 13-25 loss to Amador; they bounced back with a 8-0 win over Cal. They followed this with a 21-0 stomp over the Livermore Cowboys.

The Wolves most impressive win was against cross-town rivals, Monte Vista. The Lobos beat the 'Stangs with just seconds left to play, ending their season with a 13-12 win.

The leading rusher and scorer for the season was Dan Stanley, the Most Valuable Lineman award went to Mike Kopp, and the Most Valuable Back award went to Sean Hogan. The Coaches award went to Jeff Meese, and team captain was Paul Ellis.

Sam Ramon's Varsity Water Polo Team once again enjoyed a successful season. Coach Dave Myers' wolves won an unprecedented 8th straight league championship and a thrilling but heartbreaking 6th place finish at North Coast.

The outlook at the beginning of the season was very optimistic but injuries and other problems that arose had Myers and his team worried. Returning starter Brad Brunell was forced out of action due to ear injuries, while Jim Daughters and Colin Sherill both battled sicknesses throughout the season. Despite injuries the team cruised through league play with an undefeated record. Not enough credit can be given to Steve Schnittker, Mike Spackman and Eric Sargent who all filled in more than admirably as starters for all the injured members.

Spackman, Sherill, Todd Williams, Dan Hoskins, and Rob Duensing were all named to the 1st All-League team. Duensing was tabbed as an honorable mention choice for the All-NCS team while co-captains Hoskins and Sherill were named to the 1st team All-NCS. Both Sherill and Hoskins are expected to be named to the High School All-American Water Polo Team.

Other players who performed well for the Wolves were Matt Gibson, Jack Pentlarge, Bob Pulley, and Craig Dolley.

The Junior Varsity Team coached by Jon Leach also enjoyed an outstanding season. The Wolves went on to win League with a 15-0 record and a season record of 18-1 after a disappointing loss in the first game of the season to Miramonte, losing 9-11 in overtime.

The team captured the League title easily with scores such as 16-1 in the Clayton Valley game and 13-2 in the Antioch game. The closest another league team ever got to the Wolves was within a mere six goals. The Wolves also proved their talent in out-of-league games, beating Las Lomos, Campolindo and Alcanes with no difficulty.

Captains Bill Johnston and Craig Dolley led the Wolves to their outstanding season with players such as Brent Rodemeyer, Steve Daughters and Andrew Shattuck adding their strength to the team. Craig Dolley won the Most Valuable Player award, Joe Martin won the Coaches Award, while Seth Abbott and Jim Willson accepted honors for Most Improved and Most Inspirational.

With this awesome strength in the Junior Varsity Team, many players will be looking forward to playing Varsity Water Polo next year and continue Sam Ramon's winning tradition.

This year's cross-country teams had some of the best records San Ramon has ever seen. All four teams, boy's varsity, JV, and frosh/soph, and the girl's team were undefeated in EBAL Dual meets with a 6-0 record. All were champions at the EBAL League meet.

The JV and frosh/soph team were champions at the San Ramon Invitational. Don Collins and Chad Palmer were the two freshmen to run on varsity.

The boy's varsity had a great year, coming in third place in the North Coast 3A meet and eighth place in the Nor-Cal meet in Sacramento. At the award banquet in November, Chuck Lewis won the MVP award, Chris Preas won Most Improved, and Eric Hayes, Barry Tonge, and Bart Stephens received the Coach's award. Chuck Lewis broke a course record when he ran 3.1 miles in 17:11.

The girls' team was great this year, taking first place in both the North Coast 3A meet and the Nor-Cal meet. First place girl, Tina Goodykoontz, was named All Northern California Cross-country, Tribune CC Prep of the Year, and Herald Prep of the Year. Also named by the Herald were Laura Carter, Vonda Vandaveer, Kelly Sobey, and Monica Lin. At the banquet Tina and Laura won MVP while Kelly and Vonda won Most Improved. Monica Lin received the Coach's award. Tina broke the SR course record with a 13:01 for 2.1 miles.

All teams worked hard for their successes, beginning practice in August and practicing two hours a day every day. San Ramon should be proud to have had these great teams.

This year the girls varsity volleyball team worked hard to place fifth in the E.B.A.L. They placed second in an invitational tournament out of eight teams. Their overall standings were seven wins, seven losses, and zero ties. The returning seniors were Kerri Chandler, Maria Johnson, Stephanie Jones, and Genene Dayringer. Another senior, Tané Forgét played well for the team. Marci Porter, Kathy Legg, Stacey Thayer, Karen Roze, and Laura Stenger were the new members of the girls varsity volleyball team. All these girls were players on last year's J.V. team which placed fourth. All the girls played exceptionally well this year.

JV Volleyball struggles through tough season

The San Ramon JV Volleyball team, coached by Lita Hamilton went through a rebuilding year. The Lobos opened their season September 23 against the tough Monte Vista Mustangs, and lost the first game 12-15, and the second 8-15. Yvonne Bennett was voted the most outstanding player of the match. Though it was a tough season, the wolves should be commended for their strong will and determination.

Tracy Bowen: Most Valuable Player on Defense.

Ann Olson: Most Valuable Player on Offense.

Tracy Palmer: Coaches Award

This year's tennis team captured the league title by finishing off the season with a 14-0 record. All the girls worked hard to meet this goal which has been set for a long time. This was the first time in three years that the Wolves have placed first, being co-champions with Monte Vista in 1980. Their main goal was to beat the Mustangs, San Ramon's biggest rival. San Ramon pulled off the win by beating them 4-3 which encouraged them in the second round, beating them again 4-3.

The team from first single to fifth doubles consisted of Lara Goldt, Stacey Connell, Stacey Bloch, Michele Di Pasquale, Kelly Merrick, Kathy Gillotti, Lori Di Pasquale, Julie Dix, Linda Larson, Lisa Benedict, Lynne Riley, Lisa Lubbock, Janise De Voe, Ann Gillotti. The team was gifted with the freshman talent of Lara Goldt, Michele Di Pasquale, and Ann Gillotti which helped the team enormously.

The Wolves number one and two, singles and doubles competed in EBAL at Granada. Lara Goldt and Stacey Connell polished off the day by taking first place in the East Bay Athletic League tournament. The two doubles teams consisting of Kelly Merrick, Kathy Gillotti Lori Di Pasquale, and Julie Dix placed second.

They trained their hardest with their coach Diane Benedict pushing them to become the superb team they were.

The San Ramon Girls J.V. Tennis Team compiled an 8-3 record this season. Because of the lack of J.V. teams, San Ramon ended up playing Monte Vista three times, losing all three. The bright spot was that each time, the team improved the scores, losing the last confrontation only by a 4-3 margin. The 1983 team consisted of ten girls, including four freshmen, five sophomores, and one junior. This young team was coached by Ann Goldt, who said, "Each girl had her moments of glory." Overall, they turned in a fine season.

The San Ramon Boys' Varsity Soccer Team started out fresh this year with only a few returning starters, a new coach, and a young crop of talent. Their new coach, Pat Keohene, led the Wolves to an exciting season. One of the big highlights of their season was posting a 0-0 tie with league leading Amador. Pete Schultze and Rob Elliot were the captains of the 1983-84 team and were an important part of the defense. They were assisted by Bob Broxham, George Schalk, Zane Stoddard, and Brian Duffel. The offense was led by Eric Taylor, Scott Gault, Lou Clark, and Sean McKinley. The team consisted of twenty-one players, each able to play any position and wherever they were needed. There was lots of team depth which enabled them to have a well-rounded team, and successful season.

GIRLS VARSITY SOCCER: SPIRITED

Midway through the season, the girl's varsity soccer team was having a great season. Their record was 10-1-1. They were in second place. The team was experienced but young. There were only three seniors. Three new people joined the team. The coach was Kathy Schalk who was in her third year of coaching. Varsity soccer team: Kathy Gillotti, halfback, Chris Scott, fullback, Betsy Leonard, halfback, Carolyn Collins, forward, Cindy Bollingbroke, fullback, Karen Peterson, forward, Gail Bunting, forward and halfback, Chris Collins, forward and halfback, Laura Webb, halfback, Tina Goodykoontz, fullback, Mindy Rosso, fullback, Sandra Mitchell, forward, Lisa Austin, goalie, Cary Mellor, halfback, Jenny Nealan, halfback, Sherill Standley, halfback.

San Ramon's girl's J.V. soccer team had a lot of fun this year. Their record halfway through the season was five wins, one loss, and one tie. Robert Smith was the coach. The J.V. team: Jenny Goldstein, goalie, Amy Kovacovich, center halfback, Cassie Campbell, goalie, Kirsten Campbell, left halfback, Laura Peterson, center halfback, Suzi Nelson, right halfback, Nicole Sten, center halfback, Nicole Layfayette, right wing, Allison Sherrill, right halfback, Peggy Leonard, left fullback, DeAnne Auch, right fullback, JoAnne Wells, left fullback, Carol Hopkins, right fullback, Kelly Mack, right inside, Kristen Scott, left inside, Tracy Palmer, right halfback, Monique Pretovich, left fullback, Ryka Boavec, right inside, Kelly Woodehouse, right halfback.

J.V. Girls shoot for Victory

The Girls' Varsity Basketball team, coached by Leland Sandler, was a very dedicated team. The team started off with high expectations during their first pre-season game against Washington. Many of the players were injured throughout the season. There were only three games in which the whole team was healthy. The team still came through in completing their goal which was to make the playoffs. Sherinne Barlow and Patti Melchoir share many honors of their league season. Sherinne scored 29 points in a tournament against Monte Vista while Patti scored 23 points in a tournament against Dublin. The Seniors were Stacey Connell and Sherinne Barlow. The Juniors were Patti Melchoir, Cindy Bellerive, Marci Porter, Tosca Dumas, Jamey Schmidt, Claudia Dunlap and Holly Isenhour. The only sophomore was Tracy Raehn.

Coach Gabe Adami enjoyed his sixth year of coaching for the girls' J.V. team. In pre-season they played in the Campolindo J.V. tournament. It was the only game that they lost. Karen Foley and Carolyn Raventos were all tournament. The team members were sophomores Cindy Negrini, Kathy Nowacek and Carolyn Raventos. The freshmen were Julie Maclean, Tammy Bellerive, Karen Foley, Kelli Gray, Lisa Piumarta and Brooke Eisen.

The 1984 San Ramon Ski Team has proven themselves to be the best group of racers in the history of the school. Their dedication to hard work and training has resulted in being ranked among the top three teams, in the first two meets alone. The team of 22 racers, along with advisor Judy Hunter, train at Kirkwood Ski Resort. This year, the team competed in the B division of the California-Nevada Interscholastic Ski Federation, which is presently composed of seven other high school teams.

This year's San Ramon Varsity basketball team displayed great dedication and character throughout the entire 1984 season. The team consisted of twelve players: Seniors — Todd Reddick, Fred Toney, Grant Rosenblum, Jay DeVoe, and Kelly Kodama; Juniors — Mike Manning, Dave Webb, Dave Betts, Mark Jewett, Steve Schweizer and Darrell Campos; and sophomore John Laurent. Highlights of the season included the team tying for 3rd place in EBAL and going to the playoffs for the first time in San Ramon history, Jay DeVoe's last second shot to beat Livermore, Dave Webb's fourteen points in the first quarter of the Granada game, and the team leading Amador by two points in the first quarter and only being down by two at half. Third year coach Hans deLannoy stated, "Through my many years of coaching this group of kids has learned to practice with as great an intensity level as any that I have ever coached. The character and desire developed through the season was surpassed only by the player's ability to sacrifice individual needs for the team's goals." This is why the 1983-84 team had such a successful season.

JV BASKETBALL

Shoots toward a winning season.

1. Kirk Bransteader was voted Most Valuable Player in this year's Monte Vista Tournament.
2. Kraig Kluge was voted Most Valuable Player in this year's Livermore Tournament.

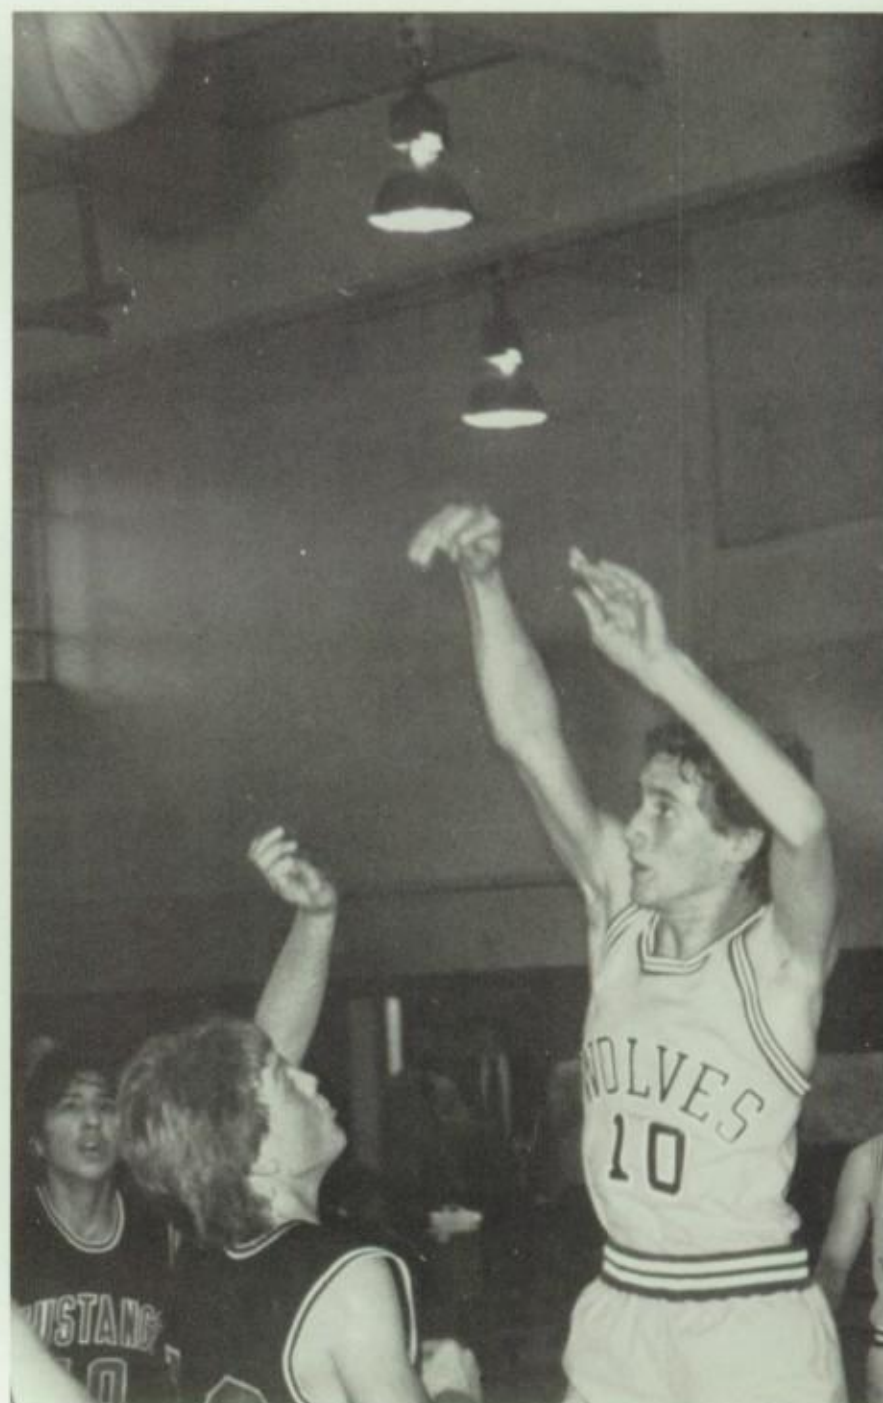

This year's San Ramon Junior Varsity Basketball team was under the leadership of 2nd year coach Ed Blake. This year's team consisted of two juniors, eight sophomores, and two freshmen — Eric McDonough, and Kraig Kluge. The five starters were Kraig Kluge, Eric McDonough, Mike Fathergill, Peter Ferrara, and Kirk Bransteader. The JV team looked very promising with a preseason record of 6-4. The Lobos started their season with an overtime win against high ranking Amador. Highlighting the season was the 70-50 victory over arch-rival Monte Vista at home. One of the hardships of this year's season was the early season injury of Mike McCurdy. The team went on to take first place in the JV division.

The team's season highlight was their last win against Monte Vista which clinched the title as the young wolves took down the nets in celebration. The team's talent and dedication equaled that of any team in past history. This young team showed heart and determination that usually is not acquired until the varsity level. The next three years look very bright for the San Ramon Basketball Program.

The varsity wrestling team has shown much talent as well as experience this year with ten returning wrestlers as well as many ambitious young wrestlers.

Starting in the 98 pound weight class was freshman Mike Hovsepian who showed a lot of class and style for a young competitor. Veteran Joe Pangelinan, a senior, was a dominating force in the 105 pound class. Leon Draper filled the 114 weight slot with a year left on the SR wrestling team. Steve Pacheco, a senior wrestler in the 121 pound weight class, showed his form this season. At 128 pounds, Darren Hovsepian set high goals for brother Mike (98's) to strive for. Sophomore Bill Walton held the 132 pound class while Colin Smith and Dan Stanley shared the 138's.

Brad Bloch and Lou Goff shared the second heaviest weight class which was the 191's and senior Pat Boring wrestled the heavyweights.

San Ramon's track team started the season right by winning their first meet against Las Lamas, 87-49. Coaches Fisher, Callahan, Rizzo, and Geraghty were responsible for this great team. Outstanding runners were Eric Hayes, Bart Stephens, Chuck Lewis, and Jim Howarth for boy's varsity. Tina Goodykoontz, Laura Carter, Vonda Vandaveer, Kelly Sobey, and Karen Peterson led the girl's team. Frosh/soph Ryan Clary, Dan Brex, Jeff Roberts, and Chad Palmer all did well in their meets. Stacie Buchanan, Jim Paige, and John Blake threw the shot put while Andy Lane and Jamey Schmidt threw the discus.

With morning workouts four times a week and afternoon practices everyday including Saturday, the boys and girls swimteams had no problem jumping right into the season. Led by Coach John Hankerson, both the boys and girls swimteams were extremely strong once again. With returning North Coast place finishers such as Dan Hoskins, Colin Sherrill, Kira McDonough, Christa Chambliss, Lisa Peterson, Kelly Kluge and Mary Evans, the two teams had a lot of returning strength from last year as well as many new freshman. Adding their talent to the teams this year were Lisa Welke, Carolyn Carty, Noel Miles, Carri Cheney, Joe Londeree and Seth Abbott. The captains of the boy's team this year were Dan Hoskins, Colin Sherrill, Rob Duensing and Eric Sargent. The girl's team was led (in support at least!) by the "senior women," a name given to Christa Chambliss, Lori DiPasquale, Carrie McDonald, and Karen Kefer by Coach Hankerson himself. Next year Lisa Peterson will be off to swim at Brigham Young University while Dan Hoskins will join the tough Berkeley team. Good Luck you guys!!! Although North Coast did happen to fall on the day of Senior Ball once again, the two teams proved themselves extremely well there and had a very successful season as well as a lot of fun.

JV SQUAD PADDLES TO THE TOP

1984 DIVERS SPRING INTO ACTION

The 1984 diving team consisted of Guy Foell, Craig Ohmen, Linda Marsac, Chrissy Klingler, Heather Snider, Shahyar Mansour, Devin Kochis, Kurt Hilde, and Amy Iskin. Coach Rick Pojh had high expectations to win league. The boys team was experienced and had hopes for high placements at North Coast. The girls team was young with great potential. 1. Captain Craig Ohmen goes for the perfect 10. 2. Linda Marsac prepares for entry. 3. Craig Ohmen proves practice can make perfect.

This year's JV swimming squad has been the largest and probably the best San Ramon has seen. Coached by John Leach and Dave Myers, the team had hopes for a league championship before the season started. The team endured long and hard workouts. Standouts on the Wolverines team were Bill Johnston, Chris Rodde, Kevin Shih, Brent Rodemyer, Meredith Holmes, Samatha Lewis, Kathy Benson and Linda Marsac. 1. The San Ramon Boys Varsity Tennis team got off to a great start. First year coach Chip Pizziconi started the Wolves practicing in an exceptionally warm February for an EBAL season that looked great. The Wolves expected to end the season with a first or second place in the league, with local rival Monte Vista being their top challenger. Top players were freshmen Jeff McCann and Greg Lane, Scott Jacobs, and returning varsity players Grant Rosenblum and Andy Combs. Other team members included Greg Cravens, Dave Alexander, Bill Ebersole, Craig Jackson, Steve Hammond, Billy McCarthy, Dave Perduk, Scott Shenk, and Mark Stein.

BOY'S J.V. TENNIS PROVE WORTHY OPPONENTS

WOLF GOLFERS SWING THROUGH

The San Ramon Boy's J.V. Tennis team looked forward to a very successful season. The team had a great depth of young talent, more so than any other school in the E.B.A.L. The players that led the pack this year were Freshman Steve Daughters, Freshman Sebastian Campos, Freshman Mike Ingraham, and Sophomore Brett Hanson. The team's chances down the road look good with all the young talent the Wolves have in their den. The Boy's J.V. Tennis team was directed by first year coach Chip Pizziconi. With tremendous talent, all the way down the ladder, San Ramon proved to be a dominating force on the courts, and a definite threat to their opponents.

The 1984 Golf Team looked forward to finishing first or second in the E.B.A.L. this year. The team was led by six returning lettermen. There were five newcomers to the team, and one was senior girl, Beth Cain. The individual team members put in a large amount of extra time brushing up on their skills, along with the three days a week they practiced as a team at Crow Canyon Country Club. Amador was favored to win the league this year, but Mr. DeRushia, the team advisor, felt that San Ramon had the talent and ability to finish the season in first place.

This year's Varsity baseball team was coached by Rick Steen and his assistant Ralph Huddleston. The wolves started their pre-season with a tough loss against Acalanes, but came back to win 4-3 over Ygnacio in their second game. The lobos won their next two games against Antioch and Hayward 3-2. Starters this year were freshmen Paul Ellis at first, Jeff Corson at second, Todd Redick at third, Matt Matheeny in right, Cary Palmer in center, Scott Marango in left, and Pete Spinetta behind the plate. This year's pitching staff is one of the best in the league. With the talents of Steve Schweizer, Matt Matheney, Paul Ellis, and Freshmen Craig Raggio the wolves should not be lacking anything from the mound.

J.V. BASEBALL, A HIT

The 1983-1984 J.V. Baseball team had a strong team this year. The team consisted of all the returnees from the Freshman team except for four players. The new players added to the team were Todd Heinrich, Phil Hoag, Sean Parrish, and Mark Pearce. The boys returning this year are Tony Barry, Tom Doslak, Mike Grassi, Brian Jewett, Jamie Karg, Grant King, Matt Koenig, John Laurent, Steve Martin, Mike McCurdy, Dale Prout, Barry Tonge and Bill Walton. The Wolves have a big asset in Phil Hoag who was accepted on the team as a freshman this year. Almost every player played two positions which made the team flexible to play all the field positions. This year was coach Rod Ingram's first year of coaching the J.V. Baseball team at San Ramon. He worked his players hard during practices to finish off the year with a good season.

The Freshman Baseball team was very competitive this year. The team coached by Coach Broaders, was gifted with some strong hitters as well as fielders which adds to the talent on the team. The team carried 20 players, all of whom had terrific athletic ability. The Freshman Baseball team consisted of Andy Boom, Steve Boragine, Dennis Bushman, John Fefley, Pat Hoey, Sean Hogan, Matt Klingler, Erin Leck, Joe Marsac, Jeff Meese, Will Miles, Mike O'Neal, Kelly Powell, Mike Quinn, Jim Radler, Steve Redwine, Rick Reynolds, Zane Stoddard, and Scott Tarpley.

Girls Softball — A Season Without Errors

The 1984 Girls Varsity Softball Team, continuing to look strong, began the season with optimistic feelings as well as an overpowering pre-season. Varsity coach John Vasquez had great confidence in his experienced team as it proved to be strong both offensively and defensively. The reasoning behind this was that the team showed great sportsmanship and excellent team efforts throughout the entire season.

There were nine varsity returners on the team. The infield consisted of: Senior first baseman Kelly Merrick, Junior second baseman Michelle Sanguinet, Junior shortstop Carolyn Collins, Junior third baseman Marcy Porter, Senior pitcher Kathy Gillotti, and Junior catcher Kim Moyer. Residing in the outfield were Juniors Kelly Mack and Claudia Dunlap, and Senior Sherinne Barlow. The utilitymen included Stacey Connell, Patty Casey, Elaine Berchdorf, and Maureen Donegan. It was a very exciting and rewarding season for everyone.

JV's Show Potential

The JV girls showed quite a bit of potential this year with experienced veterans in pitcher Ann Gillotti, Lynn Smith, and Karen Foley. In the infield the Wolves had Julie Steele at first, Holly Vasquez at second, Gail Bunting playing third, and Chris Collins and Carolyn Raventos sharing the shortstop position. Catching for Lobos were Jenny Goldstein, and Jana Johnson, who also played the outfield.

Cindy Negrini and De Anne Auch were the only permanent outfielders and showed lots of experience.

The Wolves were strong in all aspects of the games this year and should be real contenders next year at the varsity level.

FACULTY

ADMINISTRATION leads the way

Our Administration here at San Ramon is made up of a variety of jobs ranging from counselors to assistant principal, to principal. Some schools have administrations that do their jobs and stop there. Our administration never stops at the minimum but always works to its maximum potential in spirit, pride, and achievements.

When one thinks about secretaries they usually think about a lady who sits behind a desk and types. We have a total of ten secretaries here at San Ramon who do not only type, but who organize the competency tests so we can graduate, help us set up appointments with our counselors, and who always are very helpful in clearing our many absences. The main goal of these invaluable women is to help our school run smoothly.

To decrease the number of bodies per classroom, and to hire only those teachers who are qualified were the two main goals of the math department this year. Head of the department Natalie Barton believes that the state requirements for college, have helped San Ramon students try harder, which results in a rewarding outcome for both the teacher and the students.

Mr. Koliha and Chorus

The Art Department has something for everyone. It has a large variety of classes to choose from which are divided into three groups, F.A.C.E., Industrial Arts and Music.

Diane Frantzich teaches Foods and Child Development. This year students had the opportunity to work one on one with children in an on campus day care center. Students in Foods made delectable morsels and learned kitchen etiquette.

The Industrial Department includes Auto, Wood, Photo and Art. Students had a busy year. Ralph Rappaport taught his students the basics in Photography and film development. The shop teachers showed their pupils how to do general maintenance on a car or how to spin a bowl on a lathe. Carol Ashford's art students put out a beautiful art calendar for 1984.

The Music Department features Cheryl Yee, with band, and Bruce Koliha with the choir. Both groups travelled quite a bit this year. The band toured Southern California and Disneyland. The students in the chorus class went one step further . . . their goal was Hawaii!

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT ENJOYS SUCCESSFUL YEAR

The English Department here at San Ramon High, of which all teachers were at least one year veterans, set out to tackle a new set of goals for the 1983-84 academic year. First off, they wanted to begin a "book room" in which to store and begin a collection of books. They also wanted to improve courses by applying stricter rules and updating the present criteria. The biggest goal was also the most basic — to develop students who can think and write.

The staff participated in a two-day workshop which was a success. They read sample composition papers and each one graded them accordingly. They then discussed why they had given each a certain grade. All this was to help improve consistency in grading and the quality of teaching in the English Department.

The Freshmen classes this year were better than those in the past, and the Seniors have been well prepared for college. Mr. Hankerson gave all the credit to his fine staff, and he boasted that San Ramon still had the highest SAT scores in the district.

For some students learning is difficult in certain areas and to succeed in these weak areas they are given special aid. Students enrolled in this class are above average but are stalled by a block of learning ability. This year classes have more reading and emphasized writing. Mrs. Needham is sorry to say that there are fewer aides this year and they are missed very much.

This year there are nine students enrolled in the special day class at San Ramon High. This class gives students a chance to practice academic skills, home skills and to be involved in the community and in a natural environment.

The Business Department offers many classes such as accounting, business skills, secretarial skills, typing and R.O.P. These courses give students a chance to work with computers, review business skills, learn how to type and take shorthand.

As usual typing is the most popular and over crowded class. This year students in typing classes are able to learn computer literacy and advanced students in introductory to word processing.

Marisa (Miss Rissa), I would like to thank you for being the best friend in the world to me. You have made the last four years very memorable. Thank you — I love you always — Valerie

Todd — No, this did not cost me $35.00 — only one — Pretty cheap? Next time you will have to go -bring change!! — Let me borrow your game — Does it take five months to set up? Friends forever, Bill Carolyn, Karen — My two favorite junior buddies; you guys better come visit me next year. Good luck, keep in touch. Erin — guess not, sorry. Thanks for all the memories . . . Chico, 49er Camp, Mt. Diablo, Jr. Prom, Beach, Tahoe (Harold and Maude), "looks that kill," frosting fight, sign language, meet me at the locker, the SPECIAL POEM BOOK, the ups and downs — they were worth it. I guess I should be thankful that I'm the only person you can't stay mad at. Stay away from M&M's, plain or peanut — Friends Forever. Bill — Well, I've got the best guy in the whole school to myself. I wish I would have met you sooner. You're everything I ever wanted in a guy but one hundred times better. There are so many wonderful memories we have together — I hope there are millions more. My last two years of high school have been great because of you. I hope we stay together forever — I love you! To the Class of '84 — take care and I hope to see you all soon — Good luck in your future!

Love, Kathy Gillotti

Hans, Webster, Mike, Steve, Mark, Dave, Darrell, and John, I wish you the best of luck next year! EBAL Championship is looking good! Smile! — Mom Jay, Todd (my bud) Fred, Grant and Kelly, The playoffs couldn't have been possible without you guys this year! Good job, Mom. Kim — Hey, thank you for being a friend (that's a song) Our talks have been memorable — you're great! Good luck! I'm gonna miss ya! Bill — I'm glad we always got along so well, I hope our friendship lasts forever! Carolyn — The beater lives!! Kathy — Well, geek, I don't know what to say — you're the best! Thanks!

Love Erin

Hi Mike!

Maryanne Here's to all those crazy nights, rowdie times at the beach, Mt. Diablo, and DelValle!! I want to thank you for being a friend and make a toast to more good times to come. Kelly to my little buddy Rink, you better be prepared for our Hawaii trip. Ronnie to my big bro. you have always been there.

To Mike — Thanks for all the good times we have shared our senior year from the fishing trips to rafting. I am lucky to have you as a friend. Best of luck in college and in the future, and keep in touch.

To Officer Bill — To my lifetime best friend, thanks for everything. I will always remember such things as "The Dart Throw," "35", and our numerous fishing trips. Best of luck in the future and be sure to keep in touch in college, neighbor!

To Kelley — Thanks for all the warm memories you have given me in our senior year. Mt. Diablo, The Holiday Inn, watching "Tootsie" and shopping for Bermuda shorts are but a few of the memories. It is hard to express in words all the happiness you have brought to me, but this poem gets the point across: TIME IS:

TOO SLOW FOR THOSE WHO WAIT,
TOO SWIFT FOR THOSE WHO FEAR,
TOO LONG FOR THOSE WHO GRIEVE;
TOO SHORT FOR THOSE WHO REJOICE;
BUT FOR THOSE WHO LOVE,
TIME IS ETERNITY!

You mean the world to me. I Love You! Todd

Lisa —
What can I say, it's been a great year!! I think this summer, we should take a boat ride to Bodega Bay and do some fishing.

Michael cared about 3 main things in life, the people he knew, the things he did, and God.

In Memory of Michael Dowling

The Death of Sophomore, Michael Dowling, has been felt by many people here at San Ramon Valley High School.

Michael was an active member of the wrestling team and also enjoyed being with his many friends.

He will be missed!

Bless us father, that we discover each other before we leave.

And enjoy each other for what we are while we have time.

Our desire is that the love God poured out through Michael will continue on through the students of San Ramon High.

We Love you,
The Dowlings

I'm so, so glad that I met you this year. It's weird now I never even knew you at the beginning of the year, and now we're best buds!! You're such an awesome friend to have (I think we're both hopeless if you know what I mean). So far it's been fun and I know that this summer will be great! We both are going to make it that way. We'll have to plan some kinky kidnappings!! I can't wait. Next time my toads are gone!!!

I'm missy, I got to know you better

Missy,

I'm really glad that we became closer this year! You're a great friend and awesome to do ~~school~~ ^{class} projects with. Well now we don't have to deal with little freshman men (boys) now just the sophomores. You're really sweet and call me sometime over the summer and we can go back into the lemonade business. Have an awesome summer!

your friend always-

Candi Broxham

Missy,

How funny! All the global buddies are on this page! You're a really fun and nice person, and you're also a great dancer. I hope next year we'll have some classes together, maybe even Simon! (Please!) Call me sometime (820-4449 or 837-0151) we can go pick up on some guys! Have a great summer!

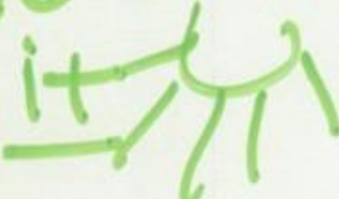

Love,

LISA BATHOUS

Missy,

I think I'll be a global buddy. It was fun having you in my class (Global 2nd period class sorry but I missed "Le fays hot!" But I heard it was good. Have a good summer and I'll see you next year, Love Andrew Shattuck

Hi GEEK!
Sorry, I just felt like saying that. everyone else says "Hi" or "Missy".
I thought that I would start with an attention getter. next year we will be roadwy Juniors and you will be driving. EVERYONE OF THE ROADS!! ☺
I am sorry that the only class we had together had to be biology with Mrs. H. She is a rusted car piece of fungi off of a rotting mushroom! you are a great person and very strong. I know that next year will be a better year for both of us as far as school goes. I hope that I see you over the summer! Lets get some better classes together next year. ok?
stay sweet and take care over the summer.

Yeh loser, Welp all I can say is we should of been out there next year but they don't think so. But we know were great so we'll just show them in the dance production. You a great friend & its been fun joking around. Have a great summer. And I'll see ya next year

Hey Missy,

Wasn't dance great
this year? Next year were gonna have to put a dance together
and show everyone our stuff. Well its really great to know
you. good luck with Lane next year. I hope your summer is fun and full of romance.

See ya,
